A close-up, black and white photograph of a Buddha statue's face. The Buddha has a serene expression with closed eyes. A single tear is visible on the left cheek. The texture of the stone or metal is highly detailed. In the bottom right corner, there is a semi-transparent dark grey box containing yellow text.

A person stands on a narrow path in a dense forest. The scene is misty, and dramatic light rays (crepuscular rays) stream down from the top, illuminating the path and the trees. The overall mood is mysterious and contemplative.
